Howdy Dave,

I know you are in the field this week. I was wondering if you had some time tomorrow if you could add anything helpful to the questions listed in the document, as well as, the notes section of the powerpoint. Lily's interview has been pushed back to this Friday with the nasty reporter (yuck). I figured it would be best to write down in our own words some points that she could make during the interview if the interviewer asks her any of these lingering questions.

Also, let me know if I need to re-word or remove anything that I had written in the document or ppt.
